DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Invention I in the reply filed on December 27, 2005 is acknowledged.
2. Claim 5 is withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on December 27, 2005.

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "instrument panel", "covering", "inflatable airbag device", and "weakening groove comprising a V-shaped configuration" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hazell et al. (US 6,070,901).

Hazell et al. discloses an instrument panel having a weakening groove (20) comprising a double angle V-shaped configuration (see Figure 3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3616

7. Claims 2-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hazell et al. alone.

Hazell et al. is discussed above but does not show the specific degrees of the angles.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Hazell et al. to construct angle A at 15 degrees and angle B at 110 degrees at such changes in shape involves only routine skill in the art; additionally applicant has not stated that having the angles at these particular degrees solves any particular stated problem.

8. Claims 1-4 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Takahashi (US 6,612,607) in view of Bromer et al. (US 3,761,374).

Takahashi discloses an instrument panel having a weakening groove having a V-shaped configuration of double angles (see Figure 1).

Takahashi does not show the exact double angle configuration as claimed.

Bromer et al. teaches a cutting blade having the double angled configuration.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Takahashi with the teachings of Bromer et al. to provide the double angle V-shaped groove in order to provide a simplified groove. Additionally, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to construct angle A at 15 degrees and angle B at 110 degrees at such changes in shape involves only routine skill in the art; additionally applicant has not stated that having the angles at these particular degrees solves any particular stated problem.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Taylor et al. shows a similar cutting blade. Sommer shows an instrument panel of interest.
